

Study Unit - Germany

Course: Spanish Elementary Level, English B2 level, German A1 level

Target group	Private learners, some experience in social tools and almost no experience in blended learning. German Students have almost no computer experience
Course content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Learning Platform introduction - Social Media Introduction - Blog, Skype introduction - General Spanish/English/German Course - Special for German: Introduction in Computers
Current setup	Most of our current language courses are face2face training with some online exercises. This units will try to offer: Face2face training plus additional course available on moodle platform. Extra Materials are to be found at iberika's blog and communication via e-mails, facebook and skype
Possible enhancements via social media tools	Distance learning part could be greatly enhanced by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Enlarge future possibilities of migrants when job searching - Flexibility of Facebook, moodle, skype, blogs - We would like to expand the usages and participate in some public networks
Possible problems	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Users have to get used to online platforms - Users are afraid about security and privacy when using public networks. - Some students don't want to have accounts on social networks for various reasons
Evaluation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Paper questionnaires after face to face part - Online questionnaires after the online part of course